

WORKSHOP of 3 units "I organize my holidays"

You would like to start organizing your holidays without following travel programs offered in agencies, but you do not know how to start with confidence. This workshop is for you !

With these 3 units, a total of 5 hours, you will be able to organize your future holidays by yourself with my help. In following this workshop, you will acquire a working method applicable to every future holiday organization. You will also notice a very positive change in your holiday budget !

Unit 1

You will learn the necessary elements to have in mind and what you must take into account when organizing holidays. You will be helped to determine the criteria that are essential for you for preparing and organizing your holidays.

1h theory – hints, information, useful tips

1h workshop – reflexion and exchanges

Unit 2

You will start doing the research according to your established criteria. We will talk about the method to select proper websites and where to find relevant information to elaborate your holiday program. Then you will contact the different places you have selected to ask them all the questions you might have.

2h workshop – hints to do the research, methodology, assistance to contact the selected places

Unit 3

This unit will be done only a few days after having finished unit 2. You will have to wait for the answers to your questions before finishing the elaboration of a concrete holiday program. You will be able to confirm if your project fits your criteria chosen in the first module.

1h workshop

The workshop price is 500 CHF.
